Nature and Extent of involvement of Faculty and students in academic affairs/ improvements

The Faculty and students of the Institute are actually involved in the academic affairs / improvements through following ways:

In addition to the normal teaching learning, the faculty members are conducting /organising number of seminars, invited talks on selective topics, workshops. They also guide and organise a number events in the college such as MOSAIC, National / International conferences, Technical Project Showcases (Prayaas/ Pragati), Codex, Colloquium - I.T. for Society and so on. The students are also actively involved in many of the above mentioned events under the guidance of Faculty.

Mechanism / Norms and Procedure for democratic / good Governance

Governing Body / Society: The Governing Body consists of President / Chairman who is the head of the Governing Body and 6 members of the Society which owns / runs the Institute.

The Governing Body of the Society has a Director who is entrusted with the overall responsibility of the college.
The Director has appointed a Principal who is legally qualified as per statutes applicable and who is duly appointed as such to look after the academic and academic administrative activities of Institute.

Executive Committee - is the body appointed by the President / Chairman of the Governing Body and includes the Director of the Institute to frame policy matters that will have a bearing on the ethos and the basic principles of the Society.

Governing Council (GC) – Is a body consisting of members from academics as well as industry and includes the President / Chairman of the Governing Body / Society as well as members of the Executive Committee. Brief description of functions of GC are as under:

a. The GC shall assist in formulating the policy decisions of the Executive Committee to implement them within the rules and frameworks of various statutory and regulatory bodies.

b. Shall also formulate policies that are helpful in achieving the goals of the institute as they are enshrined in the Vision/Mission statements and the Quality statement.

c. Shall from time to time, review the implementation process of its guidelines by the college administration and advise accordingly.

d. Shall advise and guide in the quality advancement of the academic programs, research administration and placement activities etc.

e. Recommend strategies for improvement of the academic, placement and research activities etc.

GC meetings are conducted twice in an academic year once in each semester.

College Development Committee (CDC) [Earlier known as Local Managing Committee (LMC)] – It is a statutory body consisting of members i.e. representatives from Executive committee members, Director, Principal, HODs representing the teaching staff and a representative of non-teaching staff. Brief functions of CDC are as under.

a. Shall assist in the effective functioning of the institute in the achievement of its goals as enshrined in the Vision /Mission and Quality statements.

b. Shall assist the administration in creating and maintaining a conducive atmosphere, both for the staff and students in pursuit of academic excellence.

c. Assist in bettering the academic, curricular and extra-curricular activities of the institute.

d. Review from time to time, the above activities and evaluate their effectiveness and suggest ways to improve them, e. Recommend to the management strategies for the improvement of academic, research, placements activities etc.

f. Analyze the semester results, research activities, placements etc. as to find solutions to improve them.

g. Discuss and help to find solutions for grievances if any, of both from staff and students.

h. Motivate staff and students in complying with the directives of various regulatory and certifying bodies, such as University of Mumbai, AICTE, DTE, NBA, Executive Committee, GC, LIC etc.

i. Initiate and guide in organizing extra-curricular activities, like National and International Conference, Quiz Competition, Project Competition etc.

CDC meetings are conducted twice in an academic year once in each semester.

The Principal has appointed various college committees consisting of faculty members to help in the administration of academic activities of the college.

Student Feedback on Institutional Governance / Faculty performance

Feedback / Evaluation of teachers by students are conducted online by students after the end of each class test / semester. The feedback / evaluation contain (a) items on faculty's teaching effectiveness & (b) feedback on various infrastructural facilities. Additionally a drop box is provided near Director's office in which students can freely voice their opinions without disclosing identity if they wish on any matter pertaining to the Institute.

Grievance Redressal mechanism for Faculty, staff and students

The Institute has constituted a Grievance Redressal Committee as per the guidelines issued by AICTE for students. The Institute has also established online grievance Redressal mechanism on the college web portal for both Faculty, staff and students. The aggrieved students are free to approach the committee for Redressal of their grievances.

Staff members are free to approach the Principal and the Director to redress their grievances if any, directly.

Establishment of Anti Ragging Committee

With a view to take utmost care to prevent any anti-ragging activities in our campus, the college has established an Anti-Ragging Committee and Anti-Ragging Squad as per the norms laid down by the AICTE. The members of the committee for the academic year 2021-22
